Brian Williams

DELEGADO

I grew up in Detroit attending an LC school and participating in a good range of RC activities. After graduating a Jesuit high school, I did a year as a coworker (in Los Angeles) and then spent two years in the LC novitiate in Cheshire. I then returned to Michigan to study finance, moved to Los Angeles the year after graduation, and moved to San Francisco in early 2014. Here, I work at Silicon Valley Bank (providing banking services and commercial loans to early stage tech companies) and am involved in a Dominican-led parish. My apostolic experience includes MegaMissions, pro-life activity, RC team leadership, section assistance for young men in Detroit, RCIA, listening ministry for returning Catholics, and directing the Young Adult Virtual Region for the RC renewal.
